

MEMBERSHIP PROPOSAL – THE LAWYERS CLUB OF CHICAGO

INFORMATION

1. Qualifications for Active Membership:

Lawyers who are engaged in active practice or otherwise involved in law-related activities in the Chicago metropolitan area, and are in good standing, may be admitted to membership.

2. Who Must Propose a Lawyer for Membership as an Active Member?

A Club member must propose a nomination.

3. How is the Nomination Procedure Initiated?

The Proposer shall request from the Secretary a Proposal Form or download the form from the Club's Website.

4. How is a Nominee Elected by the Board?

The nominee will be considered by the Board at a Board meeting as soon as practicable. Proposers are encouraged to introduce a nominee to as many Board members as possible prior to the election. A nominee shall be elected a member of the Club by the unanimous vote of the directors (not less than five) present or participating at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

5. When is a Nominee's Election Effective?

Active members elected by the Board shall be presented to the membership for approval at the Membership Meeting, following the Directors Meeting at which they were elected. Members-elect become Club members only upon approval of the Membership at a meeting of the Membership.
